FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

The Adjournment Question--Blaine on Politics in the Supreme Court--North Carolinians Speak in favor of an Amendment of the Bankrupt Act--Appropriation for Potter's Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—SENATE—The president pro tem laid before the Senate the concurrent resolution of the Senate, providing for the final adjournment of Congress on the 10th of June, together with the amendment of the House of Representatives fixing July 17th as the date.

Mr. Windom, of Minnesota, moved to refer the resolution and amendment to to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. Hamlin, of Maine, hoped the amendment of the House would be concurred in by the Senate now. He thought the sooner the day of final adjournment was fixed the better it would be.

Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, said he desired to consider the matter, and the resolution might as well lay over until to-morrow, when it could be disposed of, and, upon his motion, the resolution was laid on the table, to be taken up again to-morrow.

Mr. Davis, of Illinois, called up the bill providing for the appointment of additional Circuit Judges in the 7th Judicial Circuit, composed of Indiana and Illinois, which led to a political discussion.

Mr. Blaine, of Maine, referring to the remarks of Messrs. Morgan of Alabama, and Hill of Georgia, when the bill was up on Wednesday last, said: They desired to have the bill postponed until a Democratic Senate could confirm the appointments. He thought that a most extraordinary statement. Continuing his remarks, Mr. Blaine said the whole history of the Democratic party for sixty years had been to make the Supreme bench of the United States a political bench. He referred to the appointment of John J. Crittenden by Mr. Fillmore, and the appointment of Judge Badger by John Quincy Adams, and said a Democratic Senate refused to confirm those nominations.

Thurman said while 3,600 suitors in Chicago were waiting to have their cases decided, the Senator from Maine (Blaine) was raking up the records of the country to find out the politics of the judges appointed. There were two sides of the question, and if the Senate would agree to adjourn on the 17th of October instead of the 17th of June, he (Thurman) would enter upon the discussion of the question with the Senator.

Morgan and Hill denied that they desired to postpone the appointment of the additional judges until there should be a Democratic Senate, and argued that there should be some general law on the subject, and that judges should be appointed without reference to politics.

The bill was then read the third time and passed.

Hon. R. B. Vance, of North Carolina, and W. H. Malone, a lawyer of that State, made arguments to-day before the Judiciary Committee of the House in favor of the bill now pending to amend the present bankrupt law during its existence, so as to allow the bankrupt $1,000 in real estate, in view of the recent decisions of the courts on certain State exemptions.

The House appropriation of $20,000 for Potter's committee passed. The committee meets at 2 o'clock, when sub-committees will be organized.

The committee on Commerce, of the Senate, increased the appropriation for Vicksburg in the River Harbor bill from $40,000 to $48,000.

The same committee has increased the appropriation for Charleston Harbor from $50,000 to $200,000.

HOUSE.—About fifty private bills passed.

Springer has been appointed a member of Potter's committee, vice Cobb, of Indiana, who resigned in consequence of ill health.

Confirmation—Jas. T. Rapier, Collector of the second Alabama district, vice Booth, removed.

Rejection—Wm. Berkeley, Postmaster at Alexandria, Virginia.

No Southern nominations.

SENATE.—The Legislative, Judicial, and Executive appropriation bills passed.

Matthews gave notice that he would on Tuesday call up the Texas Pacific Railroad bill.

The fishery award was discussed to adjournment.

The Committee on Commerce of the Senate increased the appropriations for Red River and the mouth of the Mississippi, $50,000 each.

Potter's committee will admit a limited number of representatives of the Press to its sessions.

Potter has written a letter to Sherman that when the questions affecting him or any one else named in the resolution are pending, the person may be present with counsel, and may have his witnesses, but all questions to witnesses must be put by members of the committee.

An Iron-Clad Sunk---Fearful Loss of Life.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, May 31.—The German iron-clad Grosser Kurfurst was sunk by a collision with another iron clad this morning. The disaster occurred in the British channel, near Dover. It is feared over four hundred lives were lost.

The Grosser Kurfurst came in collision with the iron clad Koenig Wilhelm at 9:45 this morning. The accident took place three miles off Folkstone. The Grosser Kurfurst sank almost immediately. The steamer's boiler exploded as she went down. The weather was bright and the sea calm at the time. It is reported from Dover that only eighteen persons out of the complement of 460 officers and men on board were saved. Boats went from the shore and were sent from other vessels of the German fleet to the assistance of the drowning people, and it is hoped that more lives were saved.

DOVER, May 31.—The German squadron, consisting of three iron clads, the Brusser, Grosser Kurfurst and Koenig Wilhelm, passed Dover at 8:45 this morning, bound for Plymouth, whence it expected to sail for Gibraltar. When the squadron was off Ludgate, about 5 miles from shore, one of the iron clads was observed to be gradually keeling on the beam ends, the men were seen crowding on the bulwarks, and in about five minutes the vessel went down on her side, her boilers blowing up as she sank. Boats from the other iron clads were launched, and a number of Folkestone fishing smacks near by hurried to the scene. It is hoped many lives were saved. The Folkestone life boat was launched, but arrived too late. Several steamers have gone to the scene of the disaster from Dover. It is believed the Koenig Wilhelm, which ran into the Grosser Kurfurst, is badly damaged.

LONDON, May 31.—A despatch received at the German Embassy says it is feared 450 persons were drowned.

A despatch from the coast guard says 200 were saved. Another dispatch says the Grosser Kurfurst carried a crew of 600 persons.

The Crown Prince Frederick William and the German Ambassador have gone to the scene of the iron clad disaster.

The forward part of the iron clad Koenig Wilhem is under water. The Grosser Kurfurst was the flagship of the squadron. The Admiral commanding the squadron is among the saved.

A Reported Talk with the President.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The correspondent of a Philadelphia paper publishes what he claims as an interview with President Hayes. The alleged interview opens:

Correspondent—"You do not see cause for another conflict of arms in any present difficulties, Mr. President?

"There never was a time," said the President, "when our good providence was so plainly leading us to peace and order, and we had less temptation to fly away yet under the evils of caucus government, which coerces the timid, the unwary, and often good men. We are now threatened with mutiny, perhaps conflict. The direct agents which brought on the rebellion were spirits of light compared to the present fermenters of national and general discord."

The President is made to say: "I swore to preserve the constitution of the United States, and will deliver the Executive office in its integrity to my successor."

Correspondent—"You do not admit then that Congress has any power to displace you from the office?"

President—"They can impeach me in the House of Representatives, and try me in the Senate. There is no other way which I will recognize any attempt of Congress to remove me. But I do not believe that the United States Senate has fallen to that point where high class Democrats like Bayard and Thurman, Gordon and Hill, will agree to make the Senate a vehicle for carrying out the revolutionary edict of a party caucus by a conviction of impeachment.

The correspondent asked, "Do you anticipate no other evil from the Potter policy prevailing than an attempt to impeach you?"

President.—"Yes, by getting a large majority—say two-thirds of both Houses of Congress—they might attempt to decline co-operation with the executive and bring on a dead-lock in affairs."

Correspondent.—"Suppose Congress should recognize another person as President?"

"That," said the President, "would be the civil war Judge Key and Mr. Stephens referred to. I should defend my office and the independence of the executive against any intruder."

The President is made to say, in conclusion: "It is my desire to administer the government kindly and wisely, but there is a point at which I must say, 'Thus far shalt thou go, but no farther.'"

LATER—It is ascertained on the very highest authority, that the Hayes interview is bogus.

Indian Troubles.

By Telegraph to the News.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—A Boise City, Idaho, despatch, says: Bannock Indians, numbering about two hundred warriors, under command of Buffalo Hard, the noted scout, are encamped in the Lava beds between Big Campos Prairie and Snake River, and have ordered the whites to leave the prairie on the penalty of death. They have already commenced hostilities by shooting two settlers, wounding both severely. The Indians are well supplied with ammunition sold them at Boise City about two weeks ago, on the order of Governor Brayman, on the ground that they were good Indians. About ninety mounted troops, under the command of Major Collins and Captain Bernard, will leave immediately for the scene of the trouble. They are insufficient to attack the Indians in the Lava beds, but can protect the settlers on the prairie.

LIVERPOOL, May 31.—The circular of the Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Association, in its weekly review, says: There was an extensive request early in the week, with some advance on prices Since Tuesday there has been less animation, but quotations were generally slightly higher. In American cotton a large business was done early in the week, at higher prices, but with less demand during the past two days, quotations show only a partial advance of 1 16 D. Sea Island was in moderate demand and firm. The prices of futures improved 1-16@3-32 D. by Monday noon. On Tuesday and Wednesday they were quieter, part of advance was lost, but on Thursday they were again active and the previous best rates were resumed.

THE UNIVERSITY.

Chief Marshal Wood.

Special to the News.

CHAPEL HILL, May 31.

Chief Marshall Frank Wood, of Etenton, left to-day for his home in Chowan. This will necessitate the election of another Chief Marshal, which will be held this week. All regret Mr. Wood's departure. He is a good-looking gentleman, and of soldierly bearing, and would have fulfilled the office with credit to himself and friends. No man can be elected who will fill the bill as well as he.

EUROPEAN TOUR.

Mr. Wood sails next week for an extended tour through France, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, England and other countries of the old world. DON.

Smith and Gilliam.

Chowan County Resolutions.

That the Democrats of this county, in Convention assembled, recommend to the State Convention the name of H. A. Gilliam, as one eminently qualified by intellectual ability and legal attainments to fill the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

That recognizing the eminent fitness of the Hon. W. N. H. Smith, for the office of Chief Justice, because of his high character, ability and learning, we applaud the wisdom and patriotism displayed by Gov. Vance in his appointment, and earnestly recommend him to the Democratic party of the State for the nomination to that exalted place.

Moore County.

The Carthaginian.

Our Convention met and the ticket which appeared in our paper was the choice of the people. If any dissatisfaction seems to exist we hope it will disappear. A man that is a Democrat will be a Democrat let what will befall. "Let the people rule," has been our motto and ever will be. Now the ticket is out. Let all independents and disappointed aspirants give way. The people will rule. The masses must be heard.

Sherman's Syndicate.

NEW YORK, May 31 —The Post says the syndicate this afternoon took from the Treasury the remaining $15,000,000 of 4½ per cent bonds, which completes the $50,000,000 bargained for on the 11th day of April.

Judge Manly.

The Beaufort Atlantic.

We are pleased to note that the Democratic Convention of Onslow recommended this eminent jurist for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, In the venerable Judge Manly our party would have a candidate against whom nothing disreputable could be brought—for we believe, if there is in a man in our State who is preeminently pure and upright, it is Matthias E. Manly, of Craven. Respected, honored and reverenced, he is to-day, in our opinion, better suited for a position on the Supreme Bench than any man in our State, and we hope his claims will be urgently pressed by his friends for the office to which he was recommended by the good people of Onslow. Carteret seconds the recommendation and if the noble old Roman is nominated, will roll up for him the largest majority that any candidate ever before received in the county.

HENDERSON CLASSICAL SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises at Horner's--Fine Declamation -- Reputation of the School.

Special to the News.

HENDERSON, May 31.

The closing exercises of the Classical and Mathematical School of the Messrs. T. J. and W. D. Horner took place in the large warehouse of Messrs. Cooper, on Thursday night. The warehouse was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and on this interesting occasion was occupied by a large and appreciative audience from the town and surrounding country.

THE PROGRAMME.

The programme embraced declamations, original addresses, and dramatic performances by the pupils of the school, with instrumental music by the pupils of the Female School.

DECLAMATORY EXERCISES.

The exercises began by declamations by the smaller boys, ten to twelve years of age. All the boys acquitted themselves well, and reflected credit upon their distinguished teachers. Without being invidious, we mention the following as being particularly meritorious:

Master E T Curren's rendition of the "Thunder Storm" was very fine. Master Frank Meadows' "Drunkard's Daughter" was almost perfection. Beverly Royster acquitted himself with elegance and spirit; subject—Charles DeMoore's "Remorse." These boys of Granville are very promising.

J H and D L Jernigan, of Hertford, presented a prepossessing appearance on the stage, and their delivery was excellent. Subjects—"Sailor Boy's Dream," and "An Address in Behalf of Greece."

G B Ferebee, of Virginia, rendered Pitt's reply to Walpole, spiritedly and impressively.

Cornelius Parham, of Granville—"Sorrow for the Dead," with pathos.

Charlie Rowland, of Granville—"Electoral Bill," delivered splendidly, and with effect

Edwin Barnes, of Granville, rendered "Woman and Marriage," written by a gentleman of Granville, advising courtship and marriage, was very amusing, and called forth; loud and frequent applause from the audience.

Henry Battle, of Edgecombe—"The Lost Opportunity," delivered impressively and forcibly.

Mack Braswell, son of the representative of Nash; subject—the noted piece, "On the Return of the British Refuges," spoken with elegance and grace.

Jas A Long, of Pitt, declaimed elegantly on the "Fall of Napoleon."

Henry Marriott's (of Battleboro,) rendition of "The battle of Waterloo," was perfect.

C E Cross, of Gatesville, in a musical voice, with perfect enunciation, acquitted himself handsomely on "Jefferson and Madison."

The sons of Dr. Cheatham, of Henderson—Willie and Archie—acquitted themselves creditably.

The speech of the occasion was the original one of L. V. Morril, of Pitt.

REPUTATION OF THE SCHOOL:

The Messrs. Horner are celebrated teachers, and deservedly merit the patronage of our people. The senior member of the firm has had continuous and successful experience of thirty years, and the junior twelve years. The prospects of the school for next session are good. Three of the Senior class go to Chapel Hill.

Unity.

Free Will Baptist.

There is perhaps, no truer adage than "United we stand, divided we fall." The want of this principle in the Christian Church has retarded the cause of Christ more than anything else. It is one of the ends which the devil is most wont to use. He comes, stirs up strife between the members, and as soon as the breach is made he avails himself of the opportunity thus offered to encourage the brothers or sisters in this wrong.

Western Carolina.

Farmer and Mechanic.

The great peculiarity of the climate of Western North Carolina is the rarity of the atmosphere, consequent upon its altitude; and the effect of this on the animal body is to augment the excretions of the skin and lungs, to improve the digestion and assimilation, and increase the appetite. The soil varies from the most fertile bottoms to upland of various qualities, but, on all grass can be grown with considerable success.

Sound Democracy.

Randolph County Resolutions: That it is the sense of this Convention that all aspirants for office should present their claims to a convention of the people, and abide by its decision, otherwise they should be considered seditionists and allied with our enemies, the Republicans, who are now known by the cognomen of Independents; that every man who loves his country and is in favor of good government should take his stand against anything which tends to divide our ranks and thereby give over the county to the Republican party.

Our Railroad.

The Winston Sentinel.

The following telegram from the Hon. Thos. S. Flournoy, shows that the people of Danville are in earnest about our proposed Railroad:

Subscription to Railroad for fifty thousand dollars carried almost unanimously. If all points on the line will act promptly and well the steam horse will travel through in twelve months. Large private subscriptions will be added as necessary.

THOS. S. FLOURNOY.

From what we can learn, the prospect for the nomination of of Thomas J. Wilson as a candidate for the Superior Court Judgeship is very flattering.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

Commencement Exercises--Interesting Ceremonies--One of the Leading Southern Female Institutions --- Programmes and Proceedings--- A Good Crowd.

Special Report for the News.

GREENSBORO, May 31.

The annual commencement of Greensboro Female College, one of the first institutions of its kind in the South, took place this week and attracted quite a number of visitors from this State and Virginia.

THE ADDRESS.

The first public exercise was on Wednesday, 29th, at 11 a. m., when your talented townsman, Robert T. Gray, Esq., delivered the literary address. This effort of Mr. Gray was based upon the theme—"Education Progressive"—and the production was fine. He fully sustained his reputation as a deep student, profound reasoner, elegant writer, and graceful speaker.

He was listened to with marked attention for 45 minutes, and at the conclusion of his speech was presented with a beautiful bouquet, or basket of flowers.

Two vocal and two instrumental pieces were faultlessly rendered during the morning, to-wit:

Piano Duet—By Misses A. Jones and G. Thomas.

Vocal Solo—"Pretty as a Picture"—By Miss M. W. Barnett.

Piano Solo—By Miss Annie Jones.

Vocal Quartette—"In the Starlight"—By the Vocal class.

THE SERMON.

The annual sermon was delivered at 8:15 P. M., by Rev. Mr. Bagwell, of Goldsboro. Text: I. John, 5th chapter and 12th verse. "He that hath the Son hath life." We have seldom listened to a more interesting sermon. The preacher is young in years, yet he evinced a thorough knowledge of his profession; spoke with ease, grace, fluency and eloquence.

THE GRADUATING CLASS.

We have been attending commencements for twenty years, and must say we never heard better compositions. All were good and well read; but some were excellent. The fanciful was not indulged in to the extent usual on such occasions. The whole class was clad in muslin, tastefully made by their own hands. Dr. Jones, after presenting the diplomas and a handsome Bible to the ten graduates, delivered a short, but impressive and instructive address, which, we hope, will never be forgotten by the young ladies for whose benefit it was intended.

THE CONCERT.

Long before the hour of 8 p. m., the spacious chapel, which will seat 1,000, was crowded. The concert was good, and we are inclined to particularize several of the best performers—"but you know how that is yourself," it can't be done without giving offence, so we forbear. We can say, however, that Prof. N. Rosenstock, with his lady assistants, has shown a proficiency in the musical training of his scholars creditable to himself and the institution which is so fortunate as to have secured his services.

The following programme was rendered:

PART FIRST.

Chorus—Beautiful Spring—by the Vocal Class, led by Miss Dickens.

THE CLOSE.

Thus closed one of the most pleasant entertainments ever held in the city. The chapel was beautifully decorated with pictures, flowers, evergreens, banners, mottoes, &c.

PIC-NIC, &C.

The Sabbath School connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of this place, contemplates taking a look at your beautiful City of Oaks on next Tuesday. Give them a warm—no, "cool reception."

Dr. J. A. Weatherby, well known to many of your readers, and one of Guilford's best farmers, died of dropsy on the 30th, and will be buried to-day by Buena Vista Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Col. Wm. Johnston Enters the Congressional Race.

Charlotte Observer Interview.

The report having been circulated to some extent on the streets yesterday that Col. Wm. Johnston had determined to enter the field as a candidate for Congress from this district, the Observer hunted him up, and put the question at him pointedly. In reply Col. Johnston told the reporter that he did intend to enter the race and that he might make the announcement if he saw fit.

"What counties do you expect to support you in the convention, Colonel," asked the reporter.

"I think I can rely on Mecklenburg, Gaston and Cabarrus. It is early in the action yet, and I have tried to find out what the sentiment of Catawba and Lincoln is on the subject. If I can carry these five counties I can get the nomination—they control the vote of the district."

Col. Johnston also referred to the fact, by way of adding strength to his claim, that Mecklenburg county, the largest and wealthiest in the district, has not given the district a representative in twenty years. It was the centre of the gold region, and had many very important interests which should be looked after, and which no other representative seemed to have considered himself especially commissioned to attend to.

Smith and Winston.

Bertie County Resolutions.

That the appointment of the Hon. W. N. H. Smith to the Chief Justiceship of the State of North Carolina by His Excellency, Governor Vance, meets the most cordial and hearty approbation of the Democratic Conservative people of Bertie county; and that the delegates appointed by this meeting are hereby instructed to cast the vote of the county of Bertie for Hon. W. N. H. Smith, for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

That whilst we would not desire to forestall the public sentiment of the State in the selection of Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, yet it is with the greatest degree of pride and satisfaction that we must earnestly and sincerely point to our distinguished fellow-citizen and countryman, P. H. Winston, Esq., as a gentleman whose useful life has been passed amongst us, whose profound and varied legal learning, and whose great abilities as a lawyer and a scholar, added, alike, to a pure and spotless character, render him an entirely worthy and proper associate as one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the delegates appointed by this meeting are also instructed to vote for P. H. Winston, Esq., for one of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Carteret Politics.

County Letter in the Atlantic.

I believe the time has come when the people should rise in their sovereign majesty, and, repudiating all wire-pulling politicians, select men that are intellectually and morally, as well as politically qualified to represent them. Such a one is our respected and esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. Rufus W. Bell, whom I suggest as the proper man to represent Carteret in the next General Assembly. Mr. Bell may feel that his business may prevent him from accepting the nomination, but after maturely considering the matter, he will see the necessity of acquiescing to the wishes of the people, and like the Roman patriot, who left his plough to take the reins of government and guided Rome safely through her domestic troubles, he would doubtless consent to leave his own business, and dispense with the pleasures and comforts of home for a short time, to promote the good of Cateret.

Orphan Entertainments.

J. H. Mills, Superintendent.

Friday, June 7, 7-30 p m, Magnolia.

Judge Schenck.

The Charlotte Observer, 30th.

Judge Schenck has arrived home from the trans-montane counties, where he has been holding the courts of the twelfth district. The Judge came down the railroad from Shelby to Lincolnton, Monday. He is very much worn out and debilitated, and is, we understand, confined to his residence for a few days.

A Subject of Commiseration.

The New York Tribune.

The man who seems just now to need most commiseration, is the nervous editor who barricades the door of his office, connects his burglar alarm, and then crawls down cellar and yells for Gen. Grant.

A Key-Note.

The Washington Post.

Do the representatives of Tennessee intend to allow the shameless aspersions of Mr. Hayes' hired man Key to pass unrebuked? Will Senators Bailey and Harris, and Representatives Bright, House, Whitthorne and Atkins permit this stigma to remain upon the State they have the right to speak for, because it is necessary for Mr. David M. Key to pay an instalment upon the purchase price of his seat in a fraudulent President's Cabinet! Is his unparalleled audacity—his shameless presumption to go unrebuked? According to Key's letter, his bargain with Mr. Hayes upon being appointed to the Cabinet was, that in return for not being required to apologize for his record, nor disown his political principles, he should defend the fraud by which his master obtained the power to appoint him.

President Davis.

Washington Paper.

By a recent decision of the Court of Appeals of Mississippi, Jeff Davis has come into full possession of his fine estate of Briersfield, in Warren county. It is a magnificent domain, comprising an island produced by a cut-off of the Mississippi river. It formerly belonged to Jeff Davis' brother, Joseph E. Davis, and was sold by him to Jefferson D., who took no title deed. The death of Joseph produced complications, resulting in the litigation just concluded. The property is valued at $300,000, and as the owner has been a successful planter, there is no doubt that he will retrieve his shattered fortunes. The country will not envy any success that he may achieve by cultivating the soil.

Stand to the Rack.

B. H. Bunn in Nash Convention.

United strength has been the "open sesame" of our success. Let not dissensions tear you asunder. Under the plan of selecting delegates, every Democrat has had a voice. It has been fair and open. The committee published and distributed among you a thousand circulars explaining the method. We want to hear no more of "Voice of the people stifled!" "Voters choked off by Convention, &c." This can't be. Now, when a man has submitted his claims to the Convention, and been defeated, let him acquiesce in his defeat. Vote for good men. Cast your vote for no man who will not stand up with us and abide by the nominations.

Octavius Coke.

Chowan County Resolution.

Wheras, this Convention recognizes in Capt. Octavius Coke, an able, faithful and efficient exponent and defender of the principles of the Democratic Conservative party, and whereas, he has been in the front rank in every victory achieved in the State, in its rescue from the misrule of republicans. Therfore, be it

RESOLVED, 1st, that the delegates from this Convention to the District Convention be instructed to vote as long as there is any prospect for his nomination as the candidate of the Democratic party for Congress.

Party Integrity.

The Charlotte Observer.

It is a cardinal principle of the great division of the Democratic party of which Governor Vance is the acknowledged leader, that nothing shall effect its submission to the expressed will of the majority of the party. Governor Vance himself has no claims to urge when these might interfere with the integrity and unity of the Democratic party, and would scorn to accept any station which came to him in any other than as the free offering of the party of which he is the honored chief.

United They Stand.

The Baltimore Gazette.

It is claimed that the Potter investigation has united the Republican party once more. The Republican party—what is left of it at least—always unites on slight pretexts. If the Potter resolution hasn't united the party in defense of fraud, Senator Davis' discovery of a $200,000,000 deficit in the Treasury would have brought them together in defense of stealing.

The County Paper.

The Chowan Gazette.

Every place which its people desire to be known abroad, to improve, to compete with other places for trade and for immigration, certainly must have a local newspaper. A defendant in court who is himself dumb, can as well afford to do without a lawyer as a town without a newspaper.

Patent.

Salisbury Watchman.

Mr. W. A. Weant, of this place, showed us his patent self-acting switch and smooth frog. It does away with the pointed frog, and also the switchman—the engineer having perfect control of the track. It is the best thing of the kind yet invented; so say the railroad men.

Grand Chapter.

The Salem Press.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of North Carolina will meet in Winston, on Tuesday, June 4th. The chapter at that place has planned an excursion to the Pilot Mountain for the entertainment of the visiting brethren.

Yeates.

Chowan Resolutions.

The Democrats of this county in Convention assembled, cordially endorse the action of the Hon. J. J. Yeates in the Congress of the United States, and recoguize in him an able, influential and faithful Representative.

Harnett for Vance.

County Convention.

On motion of Mr. J. R. Graddy, Harnett's member of the Legislature was instructed to vote for Vance for the United States Senate.

Bud Worms.

Southerner Beaufort County Letter.

The bud worms are playing havoc with growing crops in this section; necessitating in many instances replanting of greater part of crops.

Woolen Factory.

Hendersonville Courier.

J. P. Johnson, Esq., has just completed and put in operation a woolen factory on Shaw's creek, about 5 miles from Hendersonville.

Advice in Need.

FOR JUDGE NINTH DISTRICT.

JOHN C. L. GUDGER,

GRANVILLE Democratic Convention meets to-day.

THE Robeson convention declared for Steele for re-nomination to Congress.

A LETTER from Fayetteville states that the Cumberland Democracy is almost unanimous for Vance for the United States Senate.

THE Charlotte Observer is hopeful of the appropriation to put in operation the United States mint at that point, which is a very important matter to the State, and especially that section.

SIXTY dollars and twenty-six cents per hundred, including all grades as cured, was what Orange county leaf tobacco was doing in Durham yesterday.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM BIGGS, of the Oxford Free Lance, has been recommended to the County Convention of Granville, for nomination to the office of Superior Court Clerk.

HON. R. Y. MCADEN, of Charlotte, has gone to attend an important railroad meeting in Cincinnati. This looks to the upper Mississippi Valley connection of our Western North Carolina system of railways, and Mr. McAden is working up the interests of the Spartanburg and Asheville railroad, in which he is a large owner.

MR. W. J. YATES, publisher and proprietor of the Charlotte Democrat, advertises that paper for sale. Pecuniarily, this has been the most successful paper in the State, and Mr. Yates only proposes to dispose of it to employ his capital and time in another direction. This occasion presents opportunity for one of the best newspaper investments in North Carolina.

SIX of the township meetings are reported in the Granville Free Lance. In the resolutions such Democratic coin as the following is heard to jingle :—"A square issue on pure, honest, good old Democratic principles; the very best and strongest men, regardless of personal preferences; cast their votes only for Democrats of pure and unspotted reputation; want men as our standard bearers of pure, unadulterated Democratic principles; that none but true and tried men be put on guard—men of undoubted Democratic faith, of honesty, integrity and capacity."

The Fraud Investigation.

An unnecessary amount of bluff and bluster has been exhibited by the Republican party in and out of Congress on the Potter resolution and the tendency of the investigation to revolution.

Some apprehension has also manifested itself in the Democratic ranks, as to the probable result of alarming the country at a period when peace and repose is so much desired. Vice-President Stephens has written a letter of warning, and the Post Master General, Mr. Key, as a Democrat addresses doleful words to the Democrats of the South. They predict all manner of danger to the country and disaster to the Democratic party, and insist that the purpose, or necessary result of the investigation, if it establishes fraud, must be to unseat Mr. Hayes.

Such a result was not contemplated on the introduction or passage of the resolution, and no such purpose is entertained now. The title of Mr. Hayes is regarded, beyond doubt, as judicially perfect. But the election was a fraud, and as a fraud, the most damnable ever perpetrated, the purpose of the Democrats is to ascertain it by proper methods and put the crime on record. If the Republicans can stand this surely the Democratic party can, and all fear and apprehension as to the consequences should be properly confined to the ranks of the party to be put on trial before the country.

What there is about investigating a Radical fraud to scare the Democracy, is beyond comprehension. It is not the first time that party has been detected in crime against the liberty of the country, its peace and treasure, and it is as familiar in the criminal docket as the most wretched frequenter of the police courts at Washington; and the appearance again of this party under grave charges is not sufficient to excite more than a passing remark, nor is its conviction likely to convulse the nation.

The Potter Committee will, at all events, push the investigation, without fear, favor or affection, and if any body gets hurt in the end it will not be the Democratic party. Let the facts come out officially. Who's afraid?

Judge Strong's Law School.

The law school of Judge Strong has closed its first session. The last lecture before the Senior class was delivered by Judge Reade last night. The subject was a general one, embracing the duties and standard of the profession, and the distinguished lecturer acquitted himself in a manner creditable to his well known ability.

Judge Strong has cause to congratulate himself on the success of his law school. There are in all, twenty-seven students, nine of whom stand for license at the meeting of the Supreme Court on Monday. And not only on the success of his training, but in the excellent character which his students have maintained during their stay in the city, has he cause for congratulating himself and his classes.

Three of the blind pupils from the Deaf and Dumb Institution are students of Judge Strong. Mr. H. A. Gudger, the principal, himself a lawyer, attends the recitations and lectures in company with his blind pupils, to aid them in the prosecution of their law studies. He instructs them at the Institution by reading for them, and after two readings they are prepared to recite. It is said that they are three of the brightest students in the law school. They belong to the junior class; will not apply for license until December, and their names are :—W. D. Mintz, of Rutherford; W. T. Reeves, of Harnett, and F. Willis, of Bladen.

The Senior Class, which will apply for license on Monday, are :—E. T. Albritton, Wayne; J. T. Bland, Pender; Matt W. Ransom, Jr., Northampton; Duncan Rose, Cumberland; T. C. Worth, Randolph; R. H. Smith, Jr., Halifax; George Rountree, New York; E. G. Brown, B. B. Lewis and B. F. Montague, Wake, and a more meritorious, or better prepared class of students never presented themselves at the bar of the Supreme Court.

Raleigh possesses unusually fine facilities for a law school, in the State and private libraries, the frequent county, district, Supreme and Federal Courts, and the presence of so many distinguished members of the bar who, in succession, lecture before the students, and the success of Judge Strong has never been surpassed by any school for law instruction in the State.

Pledging Candidates.

It would be a remarkable state of things if the people in the primary meetings and county conventions were not permitted to express themselves and declare their preferences.

How far they shall actually instruct or pledge their nominees to the support of any man or measure, they must decide for themselves; but on the point of requiring every Democratic candidate to abide by the decision of a Democratic caucus and support the party action determined on by the majority, there can be no two opinions in the ranks of the Democratic party.

This course has not been generally pursued heretofore, the people of North Carolina who are an honest, conservative and party abiding people, hitherto preferring to proceed on the presumption that one of their number chosen to represent them could not abuse his trust,—that the word representative signified the carrying out of the will of the people, and that will simply known was sufficient.

But gentlemen elected to the Legislature have not always so viewed the matter, and it has occurred that some have exercised their discretion by consulting their own individual preferences, and carried their exercise of private judgment to the extent of disobeying the will and wish of the majority ascertained and expressed in the caucus. In this way party organization has suffered, and party discipline been set at naught.

Generally speaking, a representative will not disappoint his constituents by assuming the right to independent action, and the number of gentlemen in North Carolina who, as public agents, would disregard what they felt and knew to be the desire of their principals, is small, and the plan of instructing representatives is rather a matter of precaution than a measure of necessity. But the people have this year pretty generally adopted the plan of instructing their representatives and they have the right to pursue it.

It will go a long way toward the preservation and efficiency of Democratic organization in the State if the people settle down to the determination that every candidate shall stand by the party action in caucus. In fact, if this rule does not prevail, and it never has as absolutely as it should, there can be no perfect or effective organization of the Democracy with us. The Democratic party, in the campaign of 1876, attained to a more perfect organization than it had before enjoyed since the war, and its victory was the most signal. Beyond a doubt, the organization this year will be more efficient than then, and the victory correspondingly more glorious.

Assaulting Democratic Leaders.

Destroy the confidence of an army in its generals, and the army itself is practically destroyed.

It has been a part of the political tactics for some time prevailing in the ranks of the North Carolina Democracy to violently assault, in advance of a campaign, almost every prominent gentleman aspiring to any public office. It is not an uncommon thing for Democratic writers to assail men of their own party in office, and for mere difference of opinion on some matter of small moment, or policy of trifling significance, deliberately denounce their representatives as no longer worthy of private regard or public esteem, and this too when no vital principle has been violated, no neglect of duty charged, or official misconduct even suspected, but simply because, in the public station, the official has seen proper to pursue a course not in accord with the sentiment of a portion of his constituency.

Not only in advance of foregone nominations, have gentlemen in the Democratic ranks been pilloried in the stocks of public indignation, but after nominations have been conferred have gentlemen and good Democrats sought on occasion to inflame public sentiment against the choice of the majority; and not that such general favorite and nominee was absolutely unworthy of public confidence and support, but because he had in some way been rendered obnoxious to a person or a small community of individuals.

Whether seeking a position or occupying one at the hands of the public, an unworthy aspirant or guilty official should always be exposed, but the distinction must be sharply drawn between simple offense and grave crime. If there are any unworthy officials occupying places at the hands of the Democracy of this State, it is not generally known, and no proper steps have been taken to elicit such information as would lead to their condemnation and proper public denunciation. No one, as far as known, has been put forward for Democratic promotion whose popular following is not sufficient to justify any good Democrat in giving him his support, and the tone of public sentiment in this State is entirely too healthy to warrant the apprehension that candidates anywhere will be nominated who may not properly receive the votes of the masses of the party.

The News cannot consent to become a vehicle for the criticism and detraction of gentlemen in its own party ranks. It cannot be used as an engine of warfare against the citadel of Democracy. Too much latitude has already been given Democratic writers, in deference to their positions and party standing, and some unpleasant situations have resulted therefrom.

If it were an independent paper, which it is not, without party allegiance, which is not the case, it would be different. But as it is a member of the great Democratic family of the State, it cannot and will not foment discord and aid dissensions in its own circle.

By this, it is not meant that the News will screen officials guilty of manifest misconduct, or advocate the claims to office of any man notoriously unworthy of public confidence, respect and support; far from it, for this paper has never failed of any duty in this respect, but it cannot consent to be a party to the attempted destruction of men whom the majority of good Democrats have declared it their purpose to sustain and support.

Therefore are declined communications reflecting on certain gentlemen of prominence in the Democratic party, some occupying public positions and others bearing the endorsement of good and intelligent constituencies. The line must be drawn somewhere. The News has a duty to perform toward the public, its readers, its party and itself; but its highest duty is to the Democratic party, as bound up in that party are the highest hopes of the State and country.

A Boy's Logic.

The boy at Sunday-school, when asked who made the beautiful surrounding hills, replied that he did not know, as his parents had only moved in town the day before. Equally sensible are those who persist in using unwholesome, disgustingly large, and drastic pills, while Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, which are sugar-coated, and little larger than mustard seeds, will by their gentle, yet positsve action upon the stomach and liver, speedily correct all indigestion and torpidity of the liver, thus speedily curing all constipation.

READ WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY.

SAN LEANDRO, CAL., Jan, 6th, 1877.

DR. PIERCE:

Dear Sir.—I have employed your Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the last four years. I now use no other alterative or cathartic medicines, in all chronic derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. I know of nothing that equals them,

ALBIA, IOWA, July 10th, 1875.

Dear Sir—Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets are all you claim them to be. I also regard your Golden Medical Discovery, Favorite Prescription, and Sage's Catarrh Remedy, as very superior medicines.

W. B. COUSINS, M. D.

It appears that Generals G. T. Beauregard and Jubal A. Early will personally supervise the Semi-annual Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, to take place on the 11th June, at the city of New Orleans. This, of course, assures perfect fairness to all the ticket holders, among whom, as will be seen from the advertisement of the Company in another column, an enormous sum of money is to be distributed in the form of prizes. The Company was charted in 1868 by act of the Legislature.

Mr. F. Morrell, Bangor, Me., July 2, 1873, writes: "Six months ago my friends thought me incurable, suffering from Weakness, Disordered Stomach and Fever. The doctors gave me no benefit. I was persuaded to try Holden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator; after using three bottles began to improve, and to day feel perfectly well." Williams & Haywood, Ag'ts.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

MOSELEY—Local notice.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, generally higher pressure with slightly lower or nearly stationary winds mostly from north to east and clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail with possibly occasional light coast rains.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

North Carolina will thus contribute her share to the sensational literature that now floods the country.

Township Committee.

The Democratic Committee of this Township meets this morning at 10 o'clock. All Democrats in good standing are requested to be present.

Appointed Magistrate.

Judge Bunting on yesterday appointed Wesley Whitaker, Esq., a Justice of the Peace, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Justice Chas. D. Upchurch.

Personals.

Col. L. L. Polk leaves this evening for Statesville. He will there address the people of Iredell on agriculture.

W. P. Batchelor, Esq., has again taken charge of the Roanoke News.

Rev. Richard S. Burwell has gone to Missouri, where he will take charge of a Presbyterian church.

Bridge Repairs.

The Board appointed by the County Commissioners to let out by contract the work of roofing the bridge over Crabtree creek, on the Louisburg road, on yesterday gave the same to Messrs. Wiley V. Clifton and J. H. Seagraves. These gentlemen were the lowest bidders. Work on the bridge will begin at once.

Light Sales.

A prominent dealer in fertilizers writes the Department of Agriculture in regard to his sales this season. He says that the failure of Congress to settle the tobacco tax has not only prevented farmers from incurring new obligations, but from paying old ones. So both sales and receipts have been unsatisfactory.

Reorganized.

We learn with pleasure that the "Swiftfoot" base-ball club, formerly one of the best in this section of the State, is to be reorganized at once. The revived club will be composed, with one or two exceptions, of the old members. They will commence practice at once, and will send a challenge to the "Juniors" ere long.

Tucker Hall.

Jonah Boughton, the great temperance advocate, will deliver a temperance address to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, June 2nd, at 3½ o'clock, in Tucker Hall. There will be good music and singing, and he will tell the story of his life, nearly blasted by rum. He has obtained over 50,000 names to the temperance pledge. Admission free.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board met last evening. All the members present. Alderman Weaver offered the following resolution: Whereas It is contrary to the genius of our institutions and the spirit of our laws, that excessive and unreasonable bonds should be required, and whereas, it is never contemplated that a bond disproportioned to the interest involved should be required of those who are called on to serve in a public capacity; and whereas the exaction of excessive and unreasonable bonds has the tendency to throw all public offices in the hands of the rich; and whereas, we do not believe that the posession of property should be a qualification for office, or that poverty should be a disqualification: Therefore, be it resolved, that the resolution passed by this Board May the 13th, fixing the bonds of Street Commissioner and Cheif of Police at $40,000, be amended by striking out $40,000 and inserting $3,000.

Alderman Weaver spoke in support of his resolution. Alderman Magnin favored its adoption. Alderman Ellison was opposed to the resolution. He gave the audience the benefit of a regular appeal for opposition to the Democratic party.

Ayes and Nays were called for upon the vote, with the following result; ayes, Dunston, Horton, Hutchings, Harris, Hardie, Magnin, Osborn, Weaver—8. Nays, Andrews, Blake, Dobbin, Ellison, Jones, McAllister, Martin, Mitchell, Walker—9.

The Finance Committee then reported, through Alderman Hutchings, the result of their last meeting, as to the sureties on the bonds of the city officers, which were presented to the Committee; also they reported in favor of the salaries of all the officers remaining as before, except that of the Janitor, Wm. Henry Harrison Carter, which is increased $10 per month. Upon the question of postponing the adoption of the report until Wednesday evening, it was decided not to postpone. The report was then adopted.

The bonds of all the officials save that of the Chief of Police being given and accepted by the Finance Committee, that office being therefore vacant was ordered to be filled by an election. Upon the motion of Alderman Magnin the officer was required to file his bond by 6 p. m. to-day. Alderman Weaver moved to amend by fixing the amount of bond at $200,000, bond to be filed by 10 A. M. to-day. This was lost. The vote then recurring upon the motion of Alderman Magnin, it was adopted.

Nominations: W. M. Lowe, John C. Gorman, W. G. Briggs, J. W. Lee, R. H. Bradley, W. A. Price, V. Ballard. On the 4th ballot J. W. Lee was elected.

Alderman Ellison introduced a resolution that the quarrying of stone be hereafter leased to the lowest bidder. An amendment was offered that a committee of five be appointed to receive proposals for such quarrying, to report as soon as possible. The resolution was adopted.

Alderman Jones introduced a resolution, which stated the valuable services of the firemen of our city, and asked that when hands be employed by the Street Commissioner, that he be ordered to make no discrimination on account of race or color. A motion to table was lost. Upon the resolution sundry political harrangues were delivered, as usual addressed principally to the crowd outside of the railing. The resolution was adopted.

Col. W. E. Anderson was unanimously elected Commissioner of the Sinking Fund.

The election of police officer, which was postponed from last meeting, was gone into: W C Parker, John Waters, Sam Betts, C P Williams, Gay Jones, W Willis, B B Betts, Paul Lincke, and Wm H Hayes were nominated. After many ballots, W N Andrews was elected, though not among the list of nominees.

Alderman Blake introduced a resolution that the Tax Collector collect the rents of the market, which was adopted

Mr. T. W. Blake was elected clock-keeper.

The election of Chief of the Fire Department was postponed until the next meeting.

The Board adjourned to meet Friday evening.

The Presbyterian Pic-Nic.

In their choice of a day for a Maying, the Sabbath School of the First Presbyterian Church is to be congratulated, since yesterday was a day of peculiar fitness for such pleasures, rendered so by its coolness and fresh, bracing air. The scholars and invited guests, to the number of about 250, left the R. & G. Depot at 8 o'clock, under charge of the urbane and kindly Superintendent, Mr. W. S. Primrose. The cars were comfortable, every one in a mood for perfect joyment of all the pleasures the day might bring.

On arrival, without accident, at Col. Faison's, the pic-nickers were allowed the largest liberty. Of this, all availed themselves, and rambles, chats, croquet, and games of various kinds were indulged in. There were no exercises, no speeches, all was informal. The eatables and drinkables were both abundant and good, and were relished exceedingly.

Late in the afternoon the excursionists returned, after enjoying a day filled with pleasures.

A Uniformed Police Force.

The question is asked, are our policemen to be uniformed this season? Their appearance for the past year, some attired in winter uniforms, soiled and worn, others in summer suits, also much the worse for wear, some in nondescript costumes, others in ordinary clothing, has been such as to make the inquiry a very proper one. It is of course of the highest importance that the force of this, the metropolitan city of the State, should appear to advantage both as to efficiency and neatness of appearance. The impression now made is certainly not particularly creditable as to the matter of dress, there being no uniformity whatever. Let the Board of Aldermen look into the matter, and see that there be some means of distinguishing members of the police force from citizens. Let the uniform be selected with a view to neatness and durability, and make the men take care as to their appearance.

Wake Criminal Court.

Court met at 10 a. m. yesterday, his Honor Judge Strong presiding. The following cases were disposed of:

State vs. Wm Summerville. Larceny and receiving. Submission. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State and A. L. Ferrell vs. Alford Bryant. Peace warrant. Judgment that defendant pay costs and give bond of $100 for his appearance at next term of court.

Federal Memorial Day.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday says: Yesterday was Federal memorial day, observed with imposing ceremonies throughout the North. There are only a few Union soldiers buried here, and it has been the custom for the military companies of the city to decorate their graves on the Confederate memorial day. Hence, there have never been any ceremonies here.

DURHAM TOBACCO.

Guilford.

Greensboro Patriot.

Farmers of Guilford, your county stands ahead of all the counties in the State in the Agricultural Museum at Raleigh. This is something to be proud of; but you must bestir yourselves or you will lose the championship.

We have heard, from several very prominent sources, from both political parties in the county, the proposition to nominate our distinguished friend and countyman, Judge D. A. Barnes, for the next Legislature.

A Manifest Absurdity.

It is manifestly absurd to claim for a mere stimulant, tonic and alterative properties. Yet this is what is daily done by the vendors of cheap local bitters, colored to make them look attractive, and agreeably flavored, but the alcoholic basis of which is of the vilest and most hurtful description. The transcendent success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the leading alterative tonic of the United States, has induced many of these compounders of drams in disguise, to attempt the counterfeiting of this standard medicine, but their efforts have never proved successful on a large scale, and they have themselves in many instances notoriously "come to grief," through the instrumentality of the law.

The genuine Bitters have, indeed, a spirituous basis, but they are emphatically a medicine, since their botanic ingredients are signally efficacious in overcoming and preventing chills and fever, dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, and many other disorders.

A Reliable Wine.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, whose Port Grape Wine has such a wide reputation, and which Physicians prescribe so generally, was the first in this country to introduce the art of making wine from the Oporto Grape, which is now the best wine to be had, and has become a great favorite among the most fashionable in New York and Philadelphia.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately no one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.
